YAMAHA Robotics and YAMAHA Financial Services Expand the Concept of “One Stop Smart Solution” at Danlaw Electronics Assembly and Logistics in Novi, Michigan

Kennesaw, Georgia, U.S.A. – Yamaha Motor Corporation, U.S.A. and Yamaha Motor Finance Corporation, U.S.A. (Yamaha Financial Services) announces the first of many collaborations to provide complete SMT line solutions with in-house financing to its customers.

In a pilot program to expand the “One Stop Smart Solution” concept to provide financial options to its customers, Yamaha’s group of companies have partnered with Danlaw Electronics Assembly and Logistics (DEAL) in Novi, Michigan to present a complete package of machines and leasing options for their first production line in the U.S.A.

In making the announcement, George Babka of Yamaha Robotics said, “We are very excited about this new partnership with DEAL and Yamaha Financial Services to ease the transition for DEAL in their ongoing efforts to bring manufacturing to the U.S.A.. This continuing trend to create new manufacturing facilities in the U.S.A. is rapidly ramping up. With the addition of financing options for our customers, we aim to ease much of the financial burden for customers looking to make these investments in the future of ‘Made in the USA’ Electronics Manufacturing.”

Eugene Sumskas of DEAL added, “We are excited about our new partnership with Yamaha as we increase our U.S.A. footprint for manufacturing of connected vehicle solutions. Reducing the up front costs to undertake this effort has allowed us to move forward more rapidly with the assurance of a full team from Yamaha to support us now and in the years to come.

Regarding the new partnership with Yamaha Financial Services and Yamaha Robotics, Carrie Kosztowny of Yamaha Financial Services said, “We are excited to announce this expansion of our offerings to include financing for manufacturing equipment, sold and serviced by the Yamaha Robotics Team. This partnership marks the start of a new era of collaboration, paving the way for many successful ventures ahead.
